Internship Experience Letter

Title: Software Development and LLM Training

This is to certify that Mr. Mohit Rao successfully completed his internship as a Software Development and LLM Training Intern at Springer Capital from June 1, 2025, to Aug 31, 2025.

During his internship, Mohit Rao demonstrated strong expertise in applied machine learning, particularly in the areas of Large Language Models (LLMs), AI Software Development, data analytics, and natural language processing. He successfully contributed to real-world AI projects by designing, fine-tuning, and deploying language models for text summarization, classification, and sentiment analysis. His analytical thinking and ability to translate raw data into meaningful insights were evident throughout the internship.

Mohi is a quick learner, deeply curious about cutting-edge AI technologies, and an effective collaborator. His contributions during the internship were impactful and aligned with current trends in AI-driven innovation. I am confident he will bring the same energy, dedication, and problem-solving mindset to any future opportunity.
